

This plan is already being put into operation in Germany, England, Hungary, Switzerland, Holland, Brazil, Mexico, and New Zealand, and now the Brothers and I are hoping for your cooperation in Japan. For as you can see, with helpers in every part of the world, much responsibility is taken off of my shoulders, thereby permitting me to have more time for other work that has been given to me for the welfare of humanity on Earth. Yet no person who is interested will be neglected.

Along with other things, each leader is sent the list of names and addresses of all others that they may exchange ideas, information and experiences, if they so wish. In this way, a world-wide friendship will be established between people of all nations who are interested in better understanding of our interplanetary friends. And as people grow in understanding, many barriers that formerly divided them will be broken and eliminated, thereby bringing harmony and peace to a struggling world.

Whatever I send to you under these conditions can be published for it is for the better understanding of all men and women. Should anything important arise which I think the leaders should know, but which it might be unwise to
